THE TOUGHEST COMPONENTS IN THE WORLD - SRAM RED!

Fabian Cancellara from Team Saxo Bank wins 2010 Tour of Flanders and Paris-Roubaix

Fabian Cancellara dominates Tour of Flanders...

... and one week later Paris-Roubaix

Winning the two hardest Spring Classics within one week is a powerful statement for the athlete, his bike and the components. 262 km of Flanders and 259 km of Paris-Roubaix can be considered the toughest testing.

Take a look at the product that won both these races:

Cobble proof SRAM RED shifters!

Zipp 303: cobble and pothole proven!

The RED RD is fitted with the Pro Gore Cable system

OG1070 cassette: best choice for mud clearance

New PC 1091R chain: stress, cobbles, dust, it takes it all

SRAM RED brakes like it muddy!
